Tap. Pay. Done.

Your debit card can be even more convenient when you add it to a digital wallet, such as Apple Pay, Google Pay, or Samsung Pay. Once it's added, you can use your phone to pay in stores, online, and in apps without reaching for your physical card.

Getting set up is simple:

- Open the wallet app on your phone and select "Add Card."
- Enter your card information and follow the prompts. Then, when you're ready to pay, just look for the contactless symbol and tap your phone at checkout.

Your actual card number is not shared with the merchant when you pay through a digital wallet, helping keep your information more secure.
